A REVIVAL OF THE PENNY-A-LINER.

A Breezy Communication About Races That Sounds a Little
Out of Joint.

NEWS AS SERVED TO BOSTON.

The subjoined article from the Boston American, while somewhat disjointed and out of kilter is good advertising matter. It occupied a prominent place with automobile items and was under the caption, "Ormond Retires, Daytona to Race." It sounds like the rehash of some penny-a-liner who is trying to make the price of a bottle of claret. The article:

"Florida is to figure in the motorizing history of the year. While Ormond, the place which has made the Southern tournaments most famous, will not attempt the holding of any races or tournaments, the neighboring town of Daytona will do what is possible toward keeping alive the fame of Ormond-Daytona.

"Ormond retires. Daytona comes to the front, and during the third week of March next will hold a series of speed contests that should be particularly interesting, especially as they will give an opportunity to the prospective Briardiff entrants to try their speeding ability.

"The course to be used in these speed contests is exactly the same as that used in previous years the only difference being in the dropping of the name Ormond. The course for the long-distance event is to be a circular one, a turn from the beach being made at the inlet and the return being made a mile below the Daytona road. Senator Morgan has the management of the trials.

"The date of the Palm Beach motor races has been changed so that they will come just prior to the Daytona carnival and following the Boston automobile show, so that this year there will be no conflict in the dates of those meetings. This really means that there will be two full weeks of motorizing, either on water or land, in Florida this year.

"While Ormond will take no active interest in the tournament she will be just as popular as ever before, as it is not in the nature of things for those persons who have year after year journeyed to the Florida races to overlook those motor enthusiasts, Messrs. Anderson and Price, of Ormond and White Mountain fame."

MRS. GARDNER IN HOSPITAL.

Mrs. John Gardner, of South Ridgewood, who has been critically ill for weeks, has rallied somewhat and yesterday left for New York, where she will receive special treatment, and it is hoped she may recover.

She will be at the Post Graduate Hospital and receive the best possible service of specialists.

Dr. J. E. Rawlings accompanied Mrs.
Gardner as far as St. Augustine.

COLLISION OF FLYERS; FOUR KILLED.

Second Section of Pennsylvania-Chicago Flyers Crashes Into First Section.

FORTY PASSENGERS ARE KILLED.

(By United Press.)
PITTSBURG, Jan. 23.—The second section of No. 21, known as the Pennsylvania-Chicago Flyer, ran into the first section at Mineral Point, 16 miles above Johnstown, and wrecked ten sleepers filled with passengers.

Four are dead and forty injured. The dead are L. L. Taylor, Brooklyn; M. J.
Keeley, Pullman conductor, Jersey City; Charles Coleman, porter, Philadelphia; and an unidentified tramp.

Relief trains from Johnstown and Altoona are bringing the injured here.

IS RAMMED; TAKES WATER

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The White Star Liner, Republic, sailing yesterday, was rammed by an unknown craft when twenty-six miles south of Nantucket.
The engine room is now full of water but there is no immediate danger of sinking. The Baltic, a sister ship, which was 115 miles east of the entrance to Ambrose Channel, has returned to aid.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The accident to the Republic occurred in a dense fog.
There is no news of the vessel which rammed the Republic but it is thought that it sunk and the crew drowned.

STUDENTS SAVE CITY.

(By United Press.)
PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 23.—Directed by President Woodrow Wilson and Dean Henry B. Fine, the students of Princeton University helped save the city from entire destruction today.

Eight buildings, valued at $100,000, were destroyed. Assistance was asked of Trenton, but later recalled. No casualties are reported. The fire originated in a restaurant, caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove, and spread to buildings close to the dormitories. The students were aroused and formed a hand-bucket brigade and assisted the firemen, who were late in arriving.

JOE HOOKER POST AS HOST.

Last night's reunion of the old soldiers, both blue and gray, was the greatest gathering of the sort ever held in Daytona. They held a three-hour meeting and then betook themselves home with reluctance.

George H. Matthews, whom all the younger set are wont to call "Dad," presided at the banquet and acted as toastmaster, and he is perfectly at home in such capacity and has the happy faculty of making all the rest feel at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kost were in charge of the banquet tables and the spread was sufficiently elaborate and appetizing to satisfy the demands of the most exacting appetite. Sixty sat down at the "first call," and later a number of others dropped in and were served.

After the sumptuous repast had been enjoyed the toastmaster rapped for silence, and in his characteristic off-hand style made a few appropriate remarks leading up to the "feast of reason and flow of soul" and took occasion to read a letter from an absent Comrade, Commodore C. G. Burgoyne, New York, which was much enjoyed, and upon motion of the Rev. Mr. Gammel, a vote of thanks was tendered Commodore Burgoyne for same.

While the letter was of a private nature and addressed personally to "Dad," Matthews a few extracts will be of general interest: Dad read it with great effect to the assembled guests.

It starts off "Dear Dad:
"This morning while breakfasting on ham and egg, champagne, turkey wings, Florida strawberries at $2 per, the informed over-lord who obliges me by taking my tips—when they are sufficiently large—handed me a copy of the Daily News.

"The first item that attracted my attention was the notice that Joe Hooker Post would meet tonight. You can't appreciate the value of advertising, Dad.
There is no telling what grist it will bring. Keep it up, especially if you can induce Fitz to 'frank' it. For fear that I might get 'cold feet' I immediately telegraphed you to dump a hundred into the war chest for me at tonight's meeting. I thought that maybe some day an old, worn-out relic of a by-gone war might turn up shy of the wherewithal to make his camp fire, and that you would feel better if you had a little money to send him through the lines."

"Dad, if you ever feel as though you want to square yourself for all the little, mean, contemptible things you have countenanced through a long life, not wholly fraught with 'ungood' to the community which has so indulgently tolerated you, go out and hunt up a battered old warrior that is down and out.
This is where you get even with yourself: Fill him full of good things, not forgetting a little 'bottled joy.'"

The toastmaster then called upon Admiral Brooks, the only "wet footed" veteran there. He spoke interestingly of his naval experiences, and told of the Johnny Rebs doing their ships such damage at Ft. Jackson and St. Philip, below New Orleans, that they had to put back for repairs.

A veteran, in behalf of Major Britton, the popular old Seabreeze Rebel, expressed his regrets at not being able to be present. Colonel Russell, another old Confederate, sent regrets.

Colonel Huston, the only representative of the Lost Cause present, was called for, and no denial would be heard.
Colonel Huston responded with one of the most graceful and finished speeches of the evening, and was generously applauded and lionized throughout the evening.

At the conclusion Colonel Huston's address, Dr. F. H. Houghton gave them "Dixie" on his fine talking machine, a splendid solo voice with full chorus accompaniment.

Captain Benedict followed by request and began by saying it was the happiest and yet the most embarrassing position of his life that he found himself in. He was much enjoyed.

Captain Bigelow, a tall, distinguished veteran, gave some interesting incidents of a recent visit to Texas, and told of an acquaintance with an old veteran and of the veteran's father, who was in the battle of San Jacinto.

Comrade Condit didn't want to talk as there were fifty-nine better talkers present, but they would not have it so, and he made a good hit or two.

When Colonel Carpenter made the claim of being the oldest man in the room they hooted him, and when he owned up to being 83 years old there was a look of consternation. He was one of the youngest looking "boys" in the bunch. He takes walks of five miles per day.

Tom Smith, a high Mason, proved to be a live wire, and was one of the star speakers and singers. After relating his experiences up in Georgia, Dr. Houghton turned on "Marching Through Georgia," and the whole house took up the chorus every time, and it was most inspiring.

The Rev. Mr. Gammel proposed a toast to those who have been mustered out which met a unanimous and responsive second.

Colonel Russell expressed regret that more of the Grays were not there. He said he belonged to the largest Post in the United States, 1,147 members. He said he was born in the same town as Joe Hooker, and that his mother was Joe Hooker's teacher. Dr. Houghton here gave the "Red, White and Blue," and again the old soldiers sang the chorus, as they did also to "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching."

Comrade Mason, of Connecticut, spoke of his pleasure at being present, and praised the beauty of Daytona, her delightful climate and hospitable people.
Born in England, but now a thorough Yankee and glad that we whipped the mother country.

After his patriotic speech, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" was played. All of Dr. Houghton's selections were most timely, and fitted in perfectly.

Comrade Fox, of Indiana, a Pennsylvanian by birth, tried to get in a Pen-sylvania regiment, but they were all full, and he enlisted with West Virginia and was wounded in his first battle.

Rev. Fana Sherrill was introduced to Joe Hooker Post eleven years ago and has enjoyed it greatly ever since. He made a splendid talk.

Comrade Mason made a speech, asking that the wives of veterans be invited to next banquet.

An interesting white-bearded speaker announced himself from Hoopole township, Posey county, Indiana, and he soon caught the ear and was full of reminiscences.

A vote of thanks, upon motion of Admiral Brooks, was given for Joe Hooker Post for the delightful banquet and evening.

All sang America.

OLD LONDON SEES A HOLD-UP.

Surrounded By a Man-Hunting Mob And By Policemen Two Bandits Suicide.

WORLD-METROPOLIS THRILLED.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Surrounded by a man-hunting mob and a number of policemen, two bandits killed themselves early this afternoon, after perpetrating one of the most daring hold-ups in the history of London. The suicides occurred in Tottenham, one of the most populous suburbs. One of the bandits, surrounded at a busy street corner, blew out his brains. The other took refuge in a cottage, and drove out the occupants at the point of a revolver. He later killed himself.

The bandits held up an automobile at noon, in which was the week's wages for the employees of the Sherman Rubber factory. They fired on the two police-guards, killing one and dangerously wounding the other. In the excitement following an unknown man seized the satchel containing the money and made off through the crowd.

OFFICIAL VISITATION.

Live Oak Chapter, No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star, held a special meeting Friday night, to receive an official visit from the grand matron of the State, Mrs. Jeannette E. Grether, of Jacksonville, who has been on an official tour among the subordinate chapters.

There was an exemplification of work with a bonafide candidate for a subject, and the attendance was good, including a number of visiting members of the order. After the work, light refreshments were served and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

This morning Mrs. Geo. F. Smith tendered a reception at her Ridgewood home in honor of Mrs. Grether.

vere attack of indigestion to Judge Hart this morning put a sudden end to the argument on the proposition to eliminate Jur. or Leigh from the six men selected in the Cooper murder case. Court adjourned until Monday.

ROOSEVELT ON OUR RESOURCES.

Urges An Economic Use Of Timber, Mineral Deposits, etc., etc.

HE STRIKES AT MONOPOLY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—"It is high time to realize that our responsibility to the coming millions is like that of parents to their children, and that, in wasting our resources we are wronging our descendants."

In forceful language like this, President Roosevelt yesterday sent to Congress a special message upon the subject of the conservation of the country's natural resources.

The report is the result of the labors performed by the Commission since the great gathering of Governors at the White House, and proves conclusively that the forests, the minerals, the lands and the waters of the United States, are being exploited for present-day gain, and that the end of all things that go to make our country's greatness is not only fast approaching, but is practically in sight.

It is an irrefutable truth that the conservation of our resources is the fundamental question before this nation, and that our first and greatest task is to set our house in order and begin to live within our means.

"We know that our population is now adding about one-fifth to its numbers in ten years, and that by the middle of the present century perhaps one hundred and fifty million Americans, and by its end, many millions more, must be fed and clothed from the products of the soil.

"There are differences of opinion as to many public questions; but the American people stand nearly as a unit for waterway development and for forest protection.

"We know that our mineral resources once exhausted are gone forever, and that the needless waste of them costs us hundreds of human lives and nearly three hundred million dollars a year.

"When necessary, the private rights must yield, under due process of law and with proper compensation, to the welfare of the commonwealth. The man who serves the community greatly should be greatly rewarded by the community; as there is great inequality of service so there must be great inequality of reward; but no man and no set of men should be allowed to play the game of competition with loaded dice.

This administration has achieved some things; it has sought, but has not been able, to achieve others; it has doubtless made mistakes; but all it has done or attempted has been in the single consistent effort to secure and enlarge the rights and opportunities of the men and women of the United States.

"The unchecked existence of monopoly is incompatible with equality of opportunity. We are fighting against privilege."

MEDAL FOR FLEET'S WORLD CRUISE.

This medal, just struck at the Philadelphia mint, is for the men of the battleship fleet. One side bears a likeness of President Roosevelt, the other a view of Hampton Roads, with a figure representing the United States viewing the departure of the warships.

M. E. church was held at the home of Mrs.
C. I. Horn, Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Manning were hostesses of the day. There was a large attendance, about fifty members being present. A program consisting of music, vocal and instrumental, recitations and readings was carried out to the enjoyment of the guests. Those taking part in the program were: Miss Deacon, vocal solo; Mrs. Groves, an original paper; Mrs.
Harris, recitation; Misses Winifred and Aline Aman, duet, and little Misses Le-ota Aman and Nellie Manning, vocal duet. Refreshments of ice cream and cakes were served. Next Thursday a work session will be held at Mrs. E. C.
Hilbard's, and a general invitation is extended to the ladies to come with needle and thimble, and help along the success of the Aid.

Seabreeze News
SEABREEZE, Jan. 23.—The Peninsula Country Club held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the clubhouse. The following governors were elected: W. D. Sonntag, Morris Wilder, H. G. Hunsdewell and one other. The secretary reported the names of twenty new members received into the club.
Messrs. Sonntag, Bingham, Bianchi and Beatty were enjoying golf yesterday morning. Mr. Bianchi reports the links in fine condition. The cement sidewalk from Ocean boulevard to the links is nearly completed and golf promises to be very popular with the hotel people this winter.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gray went to Jacksonville on the early train this morning to meet Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs.
Gray's parents, and party. They expect to make the return trip home in Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's touring car.
Thursday, to a faithful chronicler, will go down in the history of the peninsula as a day of accidents. Besides the accident to Mr. Pollard, Mr. Mallory's dog, Buster Brown, a household pet, was run over by an automobile, near the school house, and died from the effects Thursday night; an unknown small dog was killed near the Central bridge Thursday night; Mrs. Johnson of Daytona Beach had a hen run over and killed by an automobile, and another hen was killed by an automobile on Bath street.
Messdames E. E. Culberson and A. I.
Miller and little son, Shirley, who were up to St. Augustine on the boat, returned last night.
Mrs. Kenyon and party, who arrived from the north yesterday, have taken the Kissimmee, one of the Koehersperger beach cottages.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and eel and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pecking a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stagling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for scores and quantity per acre. There are groves of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

The Prince George.

The new arrivals at the Prince George yesterday were: Miss Mary E. Brown and Miss Emma Dunleavy, of Plainfield, N. J.; G. Edmonstone and wife, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. G. P. Rose, C. E.
Rose and W. D. Rose, of Nashville; Mr.
J. Anderson and maid New York, and Mrs. Charlotte A. Parsons, of New York city.

The Pines.

Thursday night hops are becoming a regular feature at the Pines. All the good old time dances were entered into with much spirit.

Among the recent arrivals at The Pines are: Mrs. Glenn F. Andrews and Mrs. M. Wachenheimer, of St. Paul, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Charlemagne Clark, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. E. D. Neff and wife, Richmond, Ind.

The Ridgewood.

Among the new arrivals at the Ridgewood yesterday were, Chas. R. Lyons of Waukegan, Ill.; C. Snyder, Graven Hirsch, E. E. Fischer and wife, Philadelphia; C. W. Marfit, Baltimore; F. R.
Harley, New York.

Chas. R. Lyons of Waukegan, Illinois, a guest at the Ridgewood, chartered an auto and made the Ormond trip yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Phillips and son, and Miss Edna Caine of Pennsylvania made the trip to Port Orange and New Smyrna yesterday by auto.

The Despland.

A number of new guests arrived at the Despland yesterday, among them being, L. H. Keys and wife of Belleville, N. Y.; Henry C. Morris, Chicago and M.
F. Cole and wife of New York, N. Y.

Messrs Browning, Beard, Sen. Gordon, and Dr. Riggs will go down the river to Port Orange, New Smyrna and the Inlet today on a fishing trip, having chartered a motor boat.

Rivers & Carl colored entertainers, and late of the Dandy Dixie Minstrel organization will give a performance at the Despland this evening.

Schmidt's Hotel.

Among the arrivals at the Hotel Schmidt on Friday were the following:
S. H. Doughty, Bradford, Pa.; R. H.
Hancock, Atlanta, Ga.; August Brakeman and wife, New York; G. H. Mc-Greeny, St. Augustine; D. G. Eccles, Chicago; C. H. Herriek, wife, maid and children, of New York; S. Warrington, Bridgeport, Conn.; C. J. Tully, Memphis, Tenn.; J. P. Hutchinson, Norfolk, Va.

Several of the gentlemen guests at Schmidt's Hotel had an experience the other day that needs considerable explanation, especially to their wives.
They made the trip to Spruce Creek bridge by carriage, caught several fish and came home late. The wife of one of them in looking through the lunch basket found a lady's shirt waist hidden in the bottom. Now they are all busy trying to explain how it got there.

The Clarendon.

Among the guests now entertained in The Clarendon late arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hazen and daughter, Columbus.

James Henning, Mrs. W. C. Frame and Mrs. N. C. Carles are a party of New Yorkers enjoying a first visit here.
Mrs. Odell S. Smith and Miss Ida Normerd Smith of Washington, D. C., were among those registered Tuesday, as was also Mrs. J. B. Voorhees and Miss I.
Mitchell, of Chicago.

Mrs. L. P. Alderson and H. G. Thayer form a party of Southerners, who reside at Charleston, W. Va.

Among State visitors, for a brief visit, were Frank Boylston, the able representative of the Atlanta Coast Line W. T.
Woodman, of St. Augustine, and M. M.
Bond of Lake Helen, accompanied by H. Roberts and Mr. Koseman, drove over in Mr. Bond's car, spending a day at The Clarendon.

Always Counting.
"Your husband says that when he is angry he always counts ten before he speaks," said one woman.

"Yes," answered the other, "I wish he'd stop it. Since he got dyspepsia home seems nothing but a class in arithmetic."

Little girls believe in the man in the moon, big girls in the man in the honeymoon.
